P2P meetings

Work in progress!

The last two Mondays of May we spent those mornings talking about future options, strategies to attract new local sponsors, how to communicate our achievements with citizens and much more. The first meeting was with Zugló and Pavlos Melas, the second one with Opole and Nice. Another meeting, with Guimarães and Santiago will be scheduled soon.

Tropa Verde turns 5!

On May 17, 2015 Tropa Verde project became a reality. Firstly in Santiago, and then in other 5 European cities thanks to URBACT. Supporting the main ideas of generating civic movements and public-private collaborations towards sustainability, environmental awareness and the circular economy, and promote recycling and environmental responsibility among citizens.

New Polish law on segregation of municipal waste

@TropaVerdeOpole points out on their social media the guidelines of its Ministry of Climate on the segregation of municipal waste. The objectives of the law are mainly to promote the segregation of waste and reduce the amount of waste disposed, ensuring the creation of appropriate facilities for its recovery or disposal. Two-thirds of consumers support carbon footprint labeling on products

@TropaVerdeSCQ informs that, according to an international survey, 67% of consumers support carbon footprint labeling on products. You can get more content (in Galician) on <https://santiago.tropaverde.org>

New Circular Economy Action Plan

The European Union presents its new "Circular Economy action plan". A roadmap to implement a production model with environmental sustainability as his main axis. For further information, click here.
